2020 Summer Internship

› Become part of a project team with experienced professionals
› Gain exposure to various healthcare systems and settings
› Contribute to Liftoff PGH 2020, a first-of-its-kind regional healthcare innovation conference
› Present your experience and contributions to staff and Board members

DATES
June 1st through August 6th
(Mondays through Thursdays)

ELIGIBILITY
Current graduate students including but not limited to:
• Medicine
• Public Health
• Nursing
• Social Work
• Communications
• Public Policy
• Pharmacy
• Healthcare Ethics
• Business
• Education
• Rehabilitation
• Law

Undergraduates are also invited to apply

PROJECT AREAS
Adolescent behavioral health, communications, health innovation, HIV/AIDS, patient safety, aging, women’s health

TO APPLY
Complete the online application and submit a personal statement, resume, and letter of reference: hcfutures.org/internships

For questions and additional information, please contact Megan Butler: butler@jhf.org

APPLICATION DEADLINE: February 23, 2020

INTERVIEWS: February 3rd through March

About the Jewish Healthcare Foundation
The Jewish Healthcare Foundation (JHF) and its three operating arms — the Pittsburgh Regional Health Initiative (PRHI), Health Careers Futures (HCF), and the Women’s Health Activist Movement Global (WHAMglobal) — offer a unique brand of activist philanthropy to advance healthcare innovation, advocacy, collaboration, and education in the interest of better population health. For more information, visit jhf.org.